Worship Services

SUNDAY, APRIL 14, 2013

Jericho Road Service

UUCR Members who work with Jericho Road

9:15 AM and 11:00 AM

We'll be exploring the concepts of economic and social justice by means of actively helping others. As Dr. Martin Luther King, Jr. said "It isn't enough to throw a beggar a coin". Why do some people travel down the hard, dangerous road that the Jericho Road has come to represent? Members of the UUCR who actively work with the Jericho Road, Lawrence program will speak to us regarding their service, their reasons, their returns.

There will be a second offering for the Jericho Road, Lawrence program. Jericho Road of Lawrence, MA has a mission is to address economic inequities by matching the needs of nonprofit organizations in Lawrence, Massachusetts, to the talents and resources of the surrounding suburban communities. Jericho Road volunteers offer no- cost, customized professional services to those nonprofit organizations focused on helping individuals and families become economically self-sustaining. By providing services focused on economic sustainability, the Jericho Road Project works to strengthen and contribute to the vitality and quality of life in Lawrence. If you wish to donate please make your check payable to "Jericho Road Lawrence".

9:15 AM - Special Musician: Aaron Clark; 11:00 AM - UUCR Adult Choir

Worship Notes

REV. TIM

Rev. Tim is off to Iraq on this Saturday morning, April 6th. Rev. Tim will return to the office on Wednesday, April 24th, and return to the pulpit on Sunday, April 28th.

During Rev. Tim's absence, Betsy Tabor, our Intern Minister, will be the key pastoral care contact in case of an emergency (603-521-2844 cell phone). If the situation involves serious illness or death, the Rev. Maddie Sifantus (from our sister church in Wakefield) is also on standby to provide experienced pastoral care. Our Pastoral Care Team will also continue their visits and calls to members of the congregation who have asked for pastoral support. Iris Hardin, a member of our congregation who is finishing up her intensive pastoral care and chaplaincy training will also be able to provide resources and advice to Betsy and the Pastoral Care Team. If you are facing a pastoral emergency, illness, impending death, or are having a personal crisis and would like ministerial support, call Betsy Tabor, our Intern Minister at (603-521-2844 cell phone).

TIDBITS AND TOUR - WE WANT TO MEET YOU!

Save a date for an enjoyable tour of our campus and some time with our fabulous Member Services and Volunteer Coordinator, Lisa Treadwell. On Sunday, April 28 and Sunday, May 19th, we offer our "Tidbits and Tour." If you are new to the church, Lisa will offer a short "Tidbits and Tour" after the service, offering a brief introduction to Unitarian Universalism, a tour of the campus, and a short conversation with Rev. Tim.

No registration ever necessary. We meet at the front of the church after each service. Newcomers enthusiastically welcomed.

Those who have been visiting for a while and feel like they would enjoy a more detailed view of our campus and helpful tips about our wonderful enrichment and other offerings come on down! This is a fun way to meet staff and learn about our community.

HAVE YOU ATTENDED A SECOND SUNDAY SERVICE YET? OUR NEXT SERVICE IS APRIL 14 AT 5 PM

Please note your calendars! Our next Second Sunday will be held Sunday, April 14 at 5 PM with Anne Principe, Director of Faith Development. This is a time for All Ages to come together for a time of fellowship, spirit, and sharing. There will be some fun and compelling activities and conversations to explore the many dimensions of our identity. As always, a free-will donation will be taken to cover the cost of the meal. ## JERICO ROAD LAWRENCE AND SECOND OFFERING THIS SUNDAY, APRIL 14

This Sunday, we'll hear the "what" of Jericho Road Lawrence—what it does—and the "why"—why members of our own congregation are dedicated Jericho Road volunteers. We'll also have the chance to support its mission through a Second Offering. (If you'd like to donate by check, please make it out to Jericho Road Lawrence.)

Nonprofits working to improve the quality of life in Lawrence often need professional expertise to better help the people they serve—but can't afford the cost. Volunteers often look for nonprofits that need their professional skills.

Lawrence nonprofits bring their needs to Jericho Road—grant research, staff training on bookkeeping software, board development, website design, and much more. Jericho Road finds professional volunteers with the needed skills. A match is made.

Since 2006, Jericho Road Lawrence has been dedicated to strengthening the organizational capacity and leadership of nonprofits in that city—multiplying their ability to serve the men, women and children of Lawrence, who often struggle under unfavorable social conditions.

Jericho Road Lawrence's ultimate mission, to address social and economic disparities in the region, was inspired by Dr. Martin Luther King. (www.jerichoroadlawrence.org)

Intern Minister's Messages - April 11, 2013 - Once a Fortnight

The 70's Chandelier My friend Linda delighted in her first house. She loved everything about it except for one thing. She couldn't stand the light fixture over the dining room table. A large modern chandelier, it was an angular affair with glass squares hanging in horizontal layers of different lengths, kind of like a mobile. Linda didn't care for it. She prefers the farmhouse look—old quilts, rough-hewn furniture, lots of wood. So, from the start, this unsymmetrical chrome and glass fixture bugged her every time she passed through the room on her way to the kitchen. It would have to go.

But someone had obviously spent a lot of money on it—it was a big piece. So Linda had a plan. To figure out what it was worth, she would have it appraised. She'd photograph it. Then she'd work on how to get the most money for it, perhaps on eBay. Once it sold, she would be able to afford the hand-made wrought-iron candleholder she'd always loved.

Linda told me about this plan every time I went up-country to visit, but it never seemed to get off the ground. Months passed. Then years. Eight years! Eight years of life's other demands winning out over the daily annoyance of the chandelier. Eight years of unhappiness with its hanging over the family at dinnertime. Eight years of emotional weight—daily negative energy.

Then one morning, something shifted. Linda climbed onto a chair, reached up across the dining room table and started taking the glass pieces off the fixture, one by one. In minutes they lay in a glittering heap. The chandelier was gone. She piled the pieces into a box, and by noon, it was at the Good Will.

She called me, euphoric: "Someone's going to be so happy when they see this! I can't believe how long I lived with it. It meant nothing to me, but I know someone else will love it. They'll get a good deal, besides. I can't believe how happy I feel."

Sometimes, objects around us can acquire an emotional heaviness. Like old beliefs and attitudes that don't work for us anymore, we can also hold onto belongings for reasons that do not serve us. Letting go of them can feel good. What in your home is taking up emotional space? What have you been holding onto, not out of love and fondness, but some other agenda? How would it feel to let go of these things? What's it like to imagine someone else treasuring them?

The Spring Fling beckons! Click here for more information on the Spring Fling. Things you're ready to let go of today may bring pleasure tomorrow to someone else, maybe to you, as well. Take a look around. The more of us who participate and the more donations we offer...the merrier for all.

AGE-ING TO SAGE-ING: A DAY LONG RETREAT TO EXPLORE CHALLENGES AND GIFTS ASSOCIATED WITH GROWING OLDER - APRIL 20, 2013

Age-ing to Sage-ing: A Day Long Retreat to Explore Challenges and Gifts Associated with Growing Older

April 20th 10am-4pm (please bring a bag lunch) Community Hall

Ruth Goldberg, Laura Cavicchio & Paula Koppel, Facilitators

This experiential based program will allow participants to explore the gifts and challenges of aging in a safe and sacred space created over a day long retreat. By connecting and listening closely to our mind, body and spirit, remaining open and receptive, the group will explore what it means to age. Journaling and mindfulness based exercises will facilitate life review and life repair, providing an opportunity to further synthesize and integrate life's wisdom. We will also explore memorial services in the UU tradition and practical preparations related to funeral arrangements. We hope men and women of all ages will consider joining us on this meaningful journey certain to be filled with surprising gifts and insight. If you participated in last winter's program, we'd love to have your presence and trust that you will find new things to learn and explore.

Please sign up for Age-ing to Sage-ing: A Day Long Retreat to Explore Challenges and Gifts Associated with Growing Older - April 20, 2013 - by clicking here.

HOW TO RAISE A UU KID, A CONVERSATION FOR PARENTS - TUESDAY, MAY 7

Tuesday, May 7, 2013 from 7:00 PM to 9:00 PM in Fellowship Hall

How can I talk to my kids about the Seven Principles? What do I say when my child asks why she isn't making her First Communion and getting all those gifts like all the other kids? Bedtime prayers – is there a place for them for UU kids? Have you found yourself asking these kinds of questions about raising your child as a Unitarian Universalist? You are not alone. Come talk to other parents who are grappling with these and other questions. We'll be joined by some "seasoned" UU parents who will share how they answered these questions and how it's worked out for them. Pre-registration is encouraged but not required.

Please sign up for How To Raise a UU Kid, A Conversation for Parents - Tuesday, May 7, by clicking here.

News

Faith Development Explorations News

PUT YOUR SPIRIT INTO ACTION, AND REFLECTION

On April 13th, a "Spirit in Action" Day is happening in and around UUCR. The teens of our Senior High Youth Program are engaging in a day of service, reflection, and sharing. You are invited to join in this Spirit in Action Day! In the morning our destination is Lynn, Massachusetts. While it is only 12 miles away, this city (the 8th most racially and ethnically diverse community in the state....at 52%) offers many opportunities for us to forge partnerships of learning and living. In the afternoon, the group will engage in a series of spiritual and creative practices to process the experience and to enjoy contemplative explorations individually and as a group. During the last portion of the day there will be a shared meal and group activities that will interweave the richness of the day.

For youth, this is a full day of action....away from their church FD explorations and many other of their usual routines and responsibilities. It's a big deal! They will bundle the whole experience and bring it back home to all of us at UUCR. Following their hands-on experiences, Youth Coordinator Seth Robinson will support them in creating Youth Sunday together, which is coming up on April 21st. You will have the opportunity to not only hear youth's perspective and vision, but also enjoy music by an emerging all-ages band. Please come and connect with our teens. They are eager to connect with you in sincere and powerful ways.

Our ongoing Faith Development manifests in our spiritual identity when we take time to reflect on our actions and experiences. Equally important are the ways we choose to act on our ideas and reflections. Action/reflection. Reflection/Action.

On behalf of the youth, we would be delighted for you to join in the Spirit in Action Day and to worship with us on April 21st. Please be in touch with me or Youth Coordinator Seth Robinson with your interest.

Special FD Programs coming up:

- April 13th: 9 AM to 9 PM -- SHYP Spirit in Action Day
- April 14th: 5 - 7 PM -- Second Sunday: Share a meal, share an all-ages activity and discussion, join our closing circle of spirit and peace. Sign up here!!
- April 20th: 11 AM to 11 PM -- COA Spirituality Retreat
- April 21st: 9:15 AM and 11 AM -- Youth Sunday Worship (with Welcome, Music, Reflections, and Tech by our SHYP Youth)

Intergenerational Book Club

INTERGENERATIONAL BOOK GROUP - APRIL 24, 2013

The Intergenerational Book Group will meet Wednesday, April 24th from 4:00 to 5:30 in Loring House. The book we are reading is Shooting Kabul by N.H. Senzai. This is a book about a Muslim boy named Fadi and his "not so easy" adjustment to middle school in California, half a world away from his missing six-year old sister in Afghanistan who became separated from the rest of the family during a harrowing escape from the Taliban. Will Fadi be able to find his sister, Mariam? Can he possibly come up with a way to help the family reunite with his sister just by entering a contest? All ages are welcome. We would love to have you join us. If you have any questions, contact Diane Chapin by clicking here or contact Beth Brauer by clicking here.

Last Tuesday of the Month Book Club

LAST TUESDAY OF THE MONTH BOOK CLUB - APRIL 30, 2013

The next meeting of the LTOM Book Club will be on April 30 at 1:30 pm at the home of Beth and Bob Brauer, 4 Green Meadow Drive, North Reading, MA. We'll be discussing the book, Calling Me Home, by Julie Kibner. New people are always welcome. Just let the hosts know that you'll be joining us. You can contact Beth and Bob Brauer at 978-664-5046, or click here to send Beth an email.

HEAR YE! HEAR YE!

Calling any and all who would like to give a little to help UUCR gain a lot. We are in need of volunteers that can aid in Ushering, Greeting and Coffee making/serving. What better way to give back than knowing your time contribution can help a new visitor enjoy our wonderful Sunday services? What better way to give back than knowing both services will continue to flow as smoothly as they do?

Please consider taking a little bit of time out of your Sunday morning to make a difference in our church community. It is so easy to volunteer!

Just follow this link to volunteer for an upcoming Sunday.

Helping Hands

MAKE A DIFFERENCE LOCALLY

Do you have a passion for local charities? Do you like to interact with children of all ages? Do you have a limited amount of time?

We are forming a new Helping Hands Grant Team that would allow you to experience all of the above!

We need energetic individuals who could spend 2-10 hours between now and June 9th.

- Gathering name of potential local charities
- Doing a little research into the charities
- Narrowing the list to three awesome candidates
- Figuring out how to convey what a charity does that the youngest to oldest child would "get"
- Running a voting process for the children

For more information, please click here to email Laura Hackel, or call her at 781-820-1654 by April 30th.

Helping Hands

CALL FOR NOMINATIONS

Call for nominations for Local charities to be considered for Helping Hands Grant Money

If you know of a local charity that is in the Congregation's Overall Focus Area of food, please let us know!

We are soliciting written nominations from individuals and committees for local charities that operate in the Domain of Food for the Helping Hands Grant Team to select three to have the children vote on this year on June 9th! The selected recipient will receive $ 7,600 and the two runner ups will receive $ 1,200 each.

Please submit your written nomination to Laura by April 30th. The grant application can be accessed by clicking here. \(A non-editable, but printable version of the grant application can be accessed by clicking here.\)

MATT & SHANNON HEATON ON SATURDAY, APRIL 13, 2013

"Their playing is masterful and inventive, their arrangements city-smart and spacious. Still, they never forget that Irish music is, at its heart, a neighborly form meant for sharing, not showing off." — Scott Alarik, Boston Globe

Saturday, April 13, 2013

8:00 pm

Tickets:

$ 16 general admission

$ 14 students/seniors

Buy tickets for this concert online.

Musically speaking, the Heaton's play the heck out of their instruments (Irish wood flute/accordion, guitar/bouzouki). After years of study in Chicago, and many nights of music in Clare, Galway, and their adopted home of Boston, Irish Music Magazine's John O'Regan wrote, "their duet playing is tight, sweet, and tasteful, lacking nothing on either technical expertise or instrumental virtuosity."

As for their singing, when Matt and Shannon perform centuries-old songs, it feels current, conversational. They make traditional music relevant to American audiences. O'Regan wrote "songwise [there are] hints an older domestic sound, the familiar down home harmonies of The Carter Family and Tim and Mollie O'Brien."
